SUBJECT: U.S. Membership in the International Investment Corporation

The President has approved U.S. membership in the International Investment Corporation (IIC) -- a new multilateral organization affiliated with the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) and aimed at strengthening the private sector in Latin America and the Caribbean. The IIC will serve primarily as a catalyst to mobilize investment flows to small and medium sized enterprises and to encourage and strengthen private sector initiatives to stimulate growth and development. Initial capital will be $200 million, apportioned among all IDB members.
